AMUSEMENTS

ANITA STEWART AT THE BUTLER TODAY

The attraction at the Butler today is beautiful Anita Stewart in "Kate Prentiss," a melodramatic gripping story of the open range. "The Fighting Shepherdess," the greatest woman's book in years, is a thrilling countless thousands with its story of the tireless, remorseless implacable struggle of Kate Prentiss, beautiful daughter of Joseph whose mothering is confined to running the bar in her roadhouse. The big open range, desperate, hard fighting, merciless cattlemen who recognize no sex in their efforts to drive Kate and her flock from their domain, they seek her life, her good name and bar her way to love. She fights alone, and wins her hat, the man's weapons but not the man's way. The plot begins to unravel when Kate is saved from the advances of a rough character through the chivalry of "Mormon" Joe. He provides a separate cabin for Kate on his sheep ranch and thereupon hinges the big events of the girl's life and the murder of Joe, all matters combining in a most interesting and gripping tale of a girl who dared to fight for the rich despite the preponderance of odds. Added to the feature will be the latest Pathe News.

Tomorrow, Elsie Ferguson in "Lady Rose's Daughter," a vivid tale of blue blood and red from the famous novel of the same name. Coming Monday, Annette Keller in "The Perfect Woman," a seven-reel feature. "What Women Love."

CHINA STOCK EXCHANGE IS LIKELY TO SUSPEND

(By Associated Press.) SHANGHAI, Dec. 1. By Mail. China's first stock exchange designed to be operated along lines of stock exchanges in western countries, which was opened in Shanghai last summer, is under fire and may be closed as an outcome of action taken by the Kuangshu provincial assembly at Nanking. It was voted to close the Shanghai exchange and the action taken at the provincial capital has been referred to Peking for confirmation. Grounds for the action taken by the assembly are given in several charges which include failure to obtain a license from the ministry of agriculture and commerce and failure to observe various Chinese regulations of an involved nature. L. Koo-fan, an officer of the exchange, has issued a general denial of the charges.

BIG FOREST RESERVE HAS 10,028 ACRES

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—In its fifth year Chicago's forest preserve, encircling the city in a great outer park belt, numbers 10,028 acres and cost $7,220,000. Peter Reinberg, president of the district, reports. In 1920 the preserve entertained over 3,000,000 people. The park already includes more than half of the 30,000 acres of available wooded land behind Chicago and new tracts are continually being added. Indian Day, held in the preserve last year, commemorating tribes that once lived in these same wooded lands, proved so successful that it will be made an annual event. Descendants of these tribes were brought back for the affair.

SENATOR PITTMAN SAYS HE WILL BE IN COMING FIGHT OF FRENCH CONCESSIONS

The political writers of the state have had considerable to say about the probabilities of whether Senator Key Pittman will again come up for re-election, whether Ray Baker will take another fling at the senatorial toga. All the writers are guessing, when they might have had the exact truth from Senator Pittman himself, had they only read the Congressional Record and the speech the Nevada senator made on December 17 in favor of the bill for the protection of maternity and infancy.

During his discourse he was interrupted by Senator Thomas of Colorado and in reply Senator Pittman said: "I expect to be re-elected as a member of the Democratic party by virtue of the views I hold."

Here, then, is the answer to the all-absorbing question, and we blush for the state political writers, especially for the writers of the Gazette, to whom all things political are as an open book. According to this Senator Pittman will be a candidate for re-election, and our own Ray Baker will not be given an opportunity of learning how far behind his opponent he would run.
